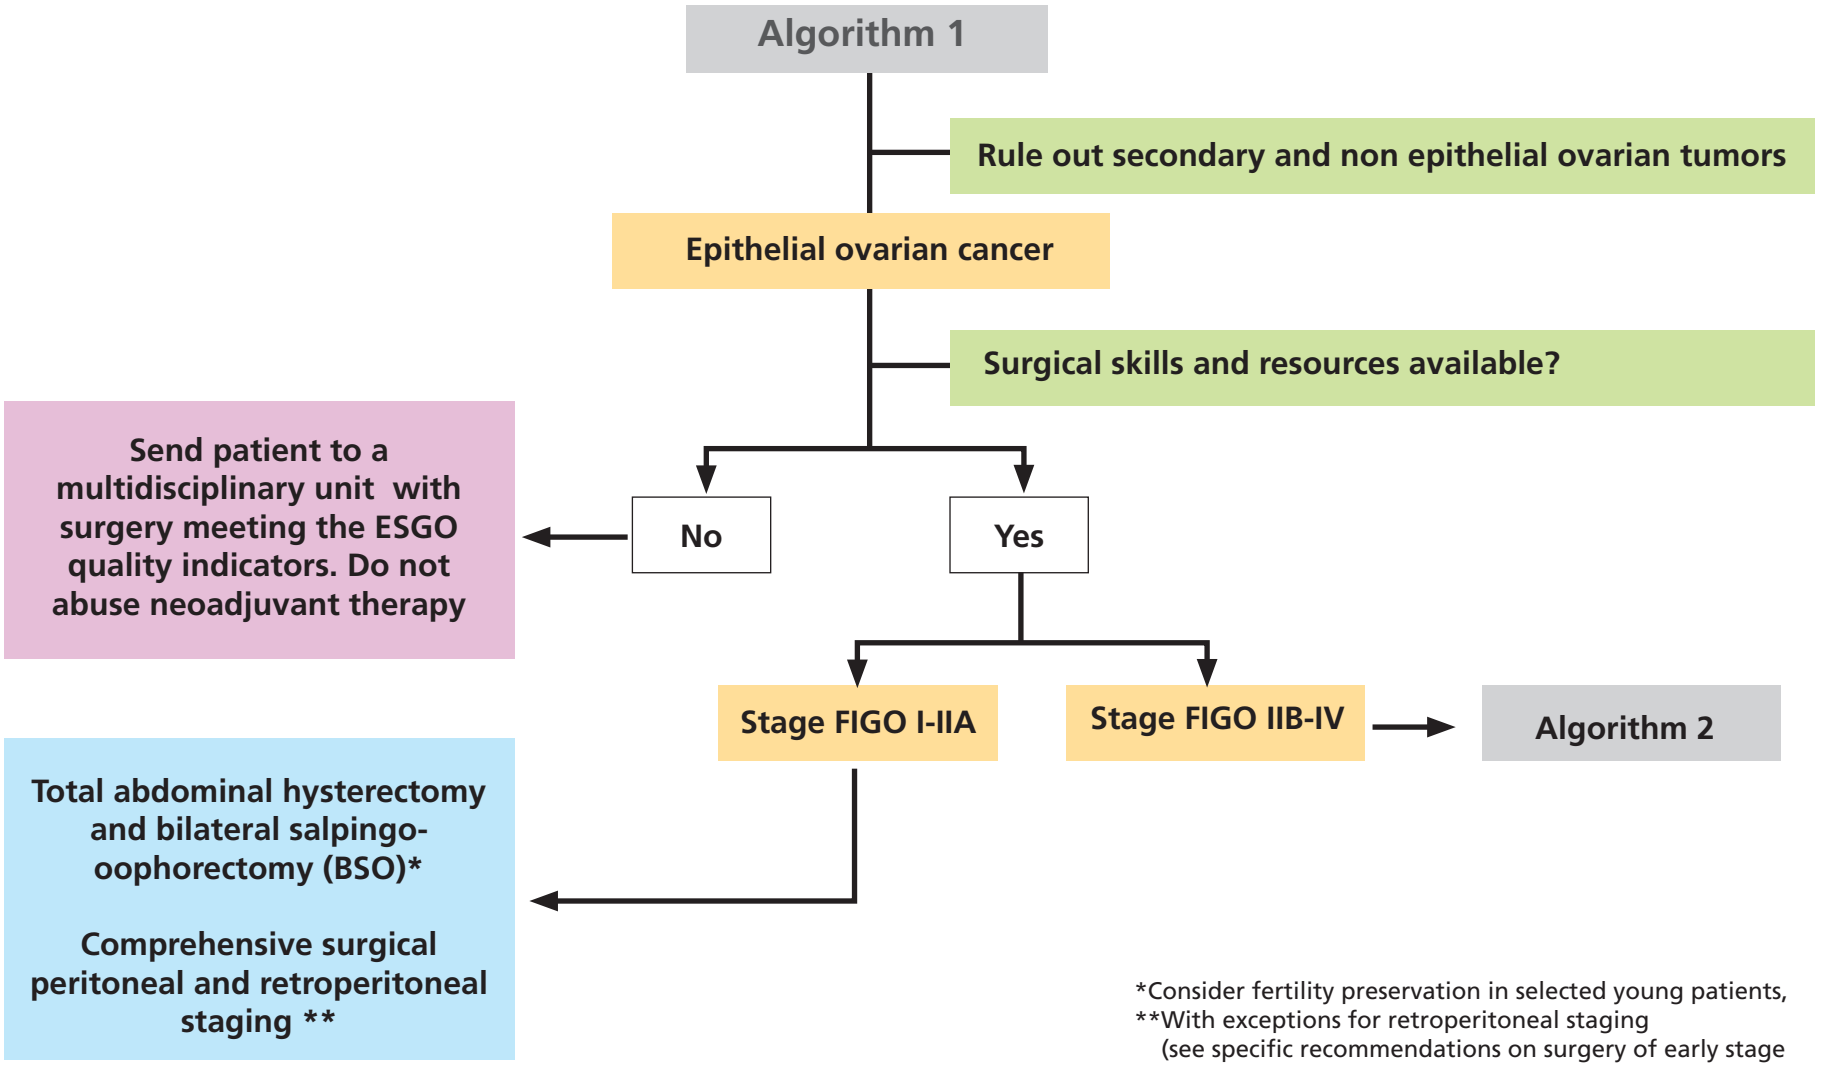
ESGO
European Society of Gynaecological Oncology

Ovarian Cancer Surgery

Algorithms
Provisional document

Algorithm 1: Epithelial Ovarian Cancer Surgery
Algorithm 2: Advanced Epithelial Ovarian Cancer Surgery
Algorithm 3: Advanced Epithelial Ovarian Cancer Surgery after decision for neoadjuvant chemotherapy

Algorithm 1: Epithelial Ovarian Cancer Surgery



*Consider fertility preservation in selected young patients,
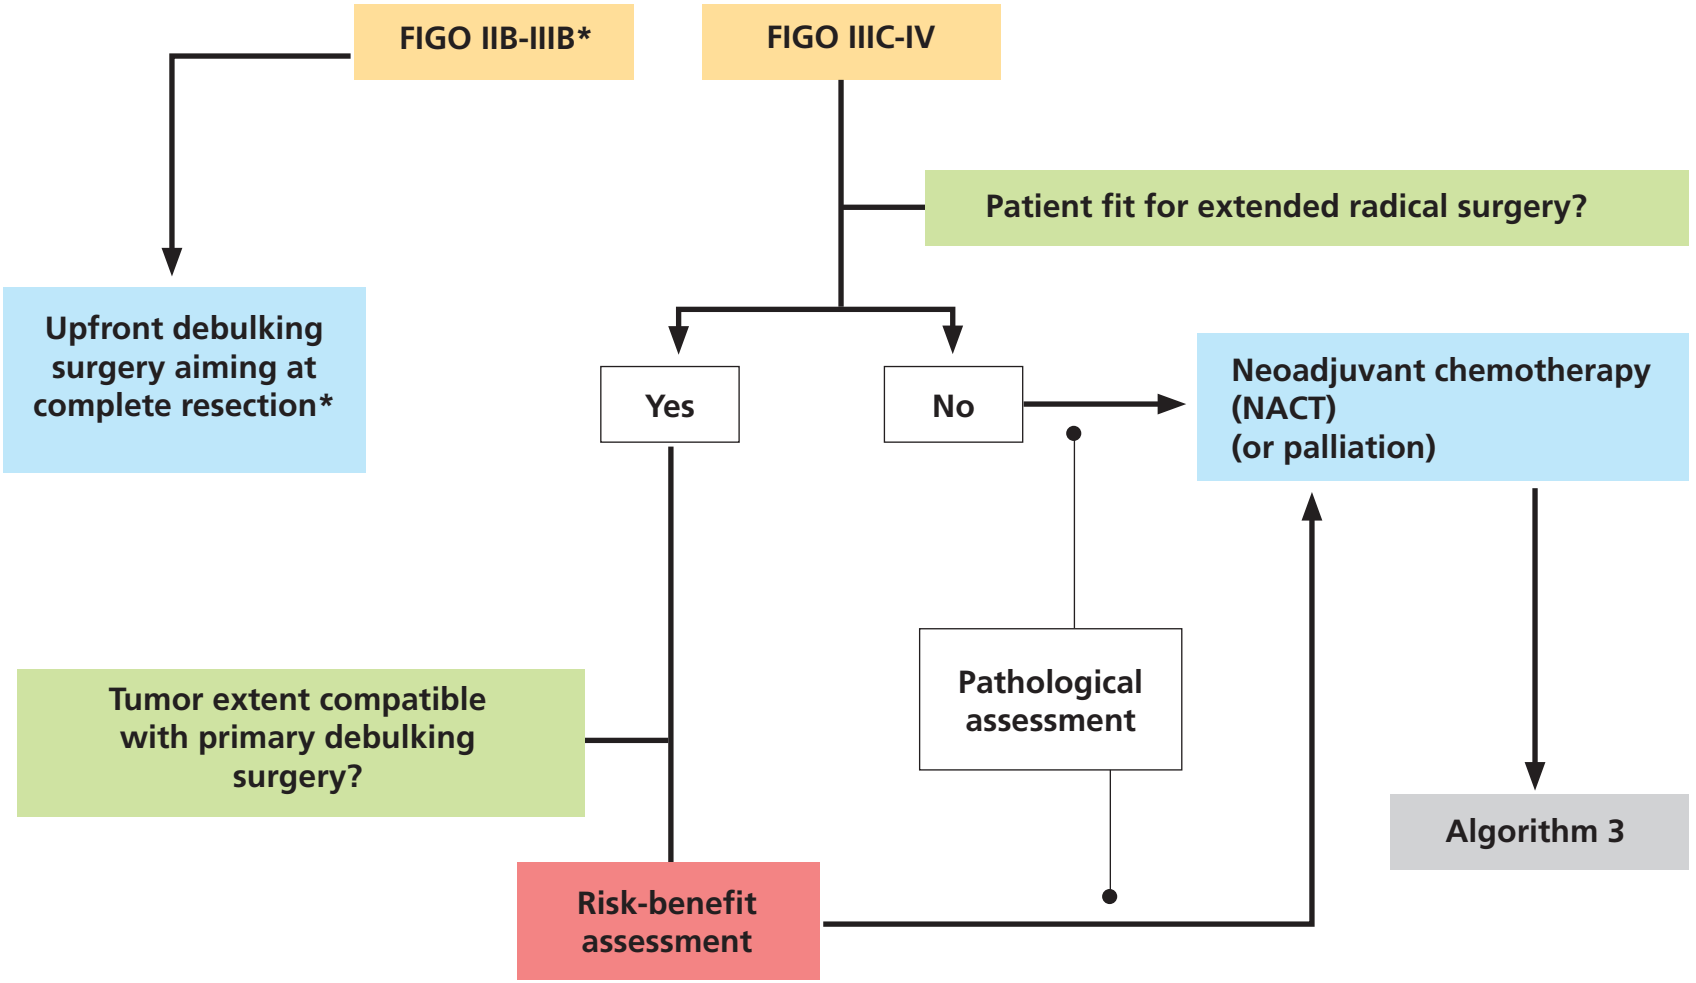
With exceptions for retroperitoneal staging (see specific recommendations on surgery of early stage ovarian cancer)

guidelines.esgo.org | esgo-guidelines@esgomail.org | Published October 2016 by European Society of Gynaecological Oncology | Copyrights: © European Society of Gynaecological Oncology | ESGO Ovarian Cancer Surgery Algorithms_v1

The European Voice of Gynaecological Oncology

Algorithm 2: Advanced Epithelial Ovarian Cancer Surgery

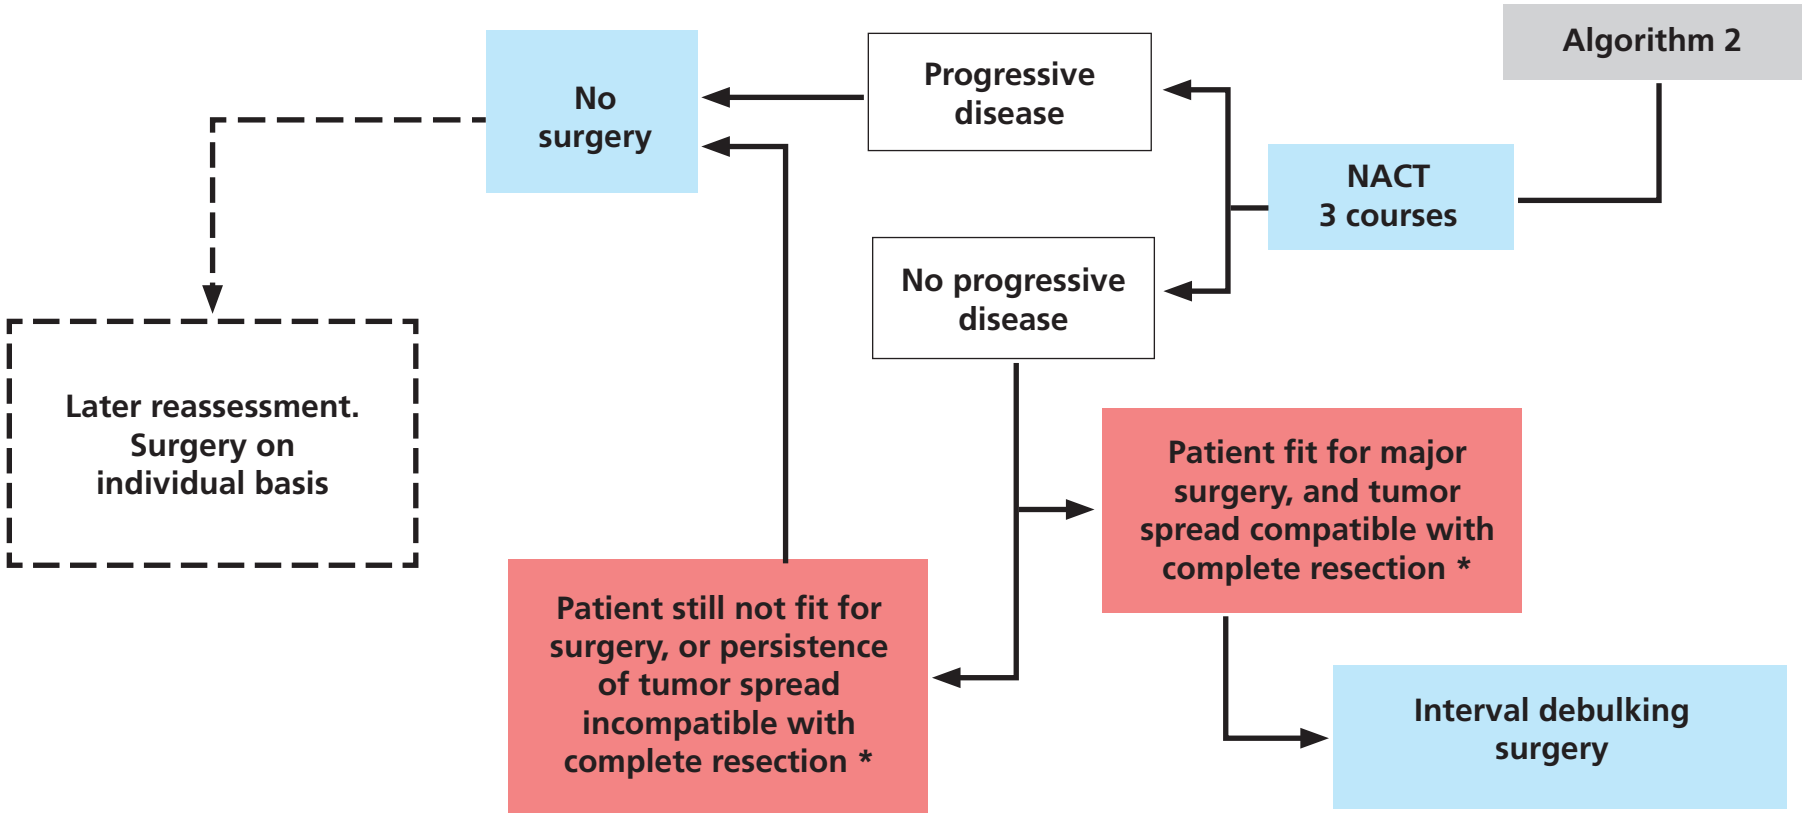


* With exceptions for IIIB (eg poor patient condition or very extensive miliary disease on the bowel for whom NACT may be preferable)

guidelines.esgo.org | esgo-guidelines@esgomail.org | Published October 2016 by European Society of Gynaecological Oncology | Copyrights: © European Society of Gynaecological Oncology | ESGO Ovarian Cancer Surgery Algorithms_v1

The European Voice of Gynaecological Oncology

Algorithm 3: Advanced Epithelial Ovarian Cancer Surgery after decision for neoadjuvant chemotherapy



*refer to recommendations on surgery for advanced (FIGO stage III-IV) invasive epithelial ovarian cancer

guidelines.esgo.org | esgo-guidelines@esgomail.org | Published October 2016 by European Society of Gynaecological Oncology | Copyrights: © European Society of Gynaecological Oncology | ESGO Ovarian Cancer Surgery Algorithms_v1

The European Voice of Gynaecological Oncology